Hi Joe. I wanted to let you know I was offered the temporary grant writing job in LA (Commerce). Yeah!! At the salary I desired even. They are saying it most likely will be until the end of July. I start 4/20. I'm feeling good about this even though it means I have to stay up there during the work week. I will continue to pursue opportunities here in San Diego. Thank you for your ongoing support and advice. I will talk with you on Thursday at 6 p.m. LH
